Admission Scholarships

Admission Scholarships will be offered to outstanding students by CUHK and the Department of Economics, the total amount up to full tuition fee coverage. The quota may vary every year depending on different factors such as students' academic and non-academic performances.

Exclusive Research Experience

The Part-time Junior Research Assistantship, exclusive to DDP students, equips them with hands-on experience beneficial to their future studies as well as career development upon graduation. A supervisor with profound research knowledge, skills and experience will be assigned to each student. One-on-one supervision will be provided throughout a whole semester. Allowance will be provided.

Student Sharing

Kayla CALITZ (Year 4 from South Africa)

“I have had the opportunity to immerse myself in the unique cultures and challenges of two vastly different cities – Beijing and Hong Kong. This experience has enriched my academic knowledge and taught me essential skills like multicultural communication and self-reliance, preparing me to succeed in varied environments.”

Kathy CHONG (Year 4 from Macau)

“This programme provides me an excellent opportunity to explore the two critical players in Chinese economy – Beijing and Hong Kong.

Joining the DDP for me is far more than just academics but more about embarking on new journey, more about exploring new cultures and invaluable connections. This programme truly helps to expand my horizons and shape my future career.”
